

Local Communities not large buisness and government must continue to have the right to determine their own communication needs.